

Ed Gosselin

Partner

Ed has been in commercial real estate representing ownership for over 25 years. He has completed over 3,500,000 square feet in leasing, development and acquisition transactions in Chicago, Denver and the Washington region, of all product types.

He entered into venture with CREG in 2013 and is responsible for acquisitions, financing, investor relations and serves on the both the management and investment committees. Prior to entering into the venture with CREG, he was a partner with Intrepid Real Estate, a private investment firm, since its' founding in 1998. At Intrepid Ed was responsible for acquisitions, financing and asset management. He completed $250,000,000 of investments that included office, multi-family, student housing and historic renovation.

Ed moved to Washington D.C. in 1996 to be a principal in the acquisitions group of a local development firm where he completed 270,000 square feet of joint venture suburban office development. Prior to his relocation to Washington, Ed was Vice President of Acquisitions for HMB Partners in Denver, Colorado. While in this position HMB created a 1,200,000 square foot office portfolio in Denver and Phoenix.

Ed earned a BA in Economics from Colorado State University and a MBA from DePaul University. He is on the Executive Committee of Urban Land Institute's Washing District Council, current Chairman of the Board of Trustees the Anne Arundel Medical Center and Board Member of its Foundation, and past Board of Directors of the Annapolis Boys and Girls Club. He lives in Annapolis, Maryland with his wife Debbie and their two children.

1344 Ashton Road, Suite 105 * Hanover, MD 21076

410-787-8799 * 410-787-8722 (fax)

www.cregllc.com