

Matthew Laraway

SIOR

Executive Vice President, Partner

Matt brings eighteen years of commercial real estate experience to CREG and serves as Executive Vice President and Partner. In that capacity Matt is responsible for strategy and oversight of the company's operations and is also actively involved in the leasing, acquisitions and the growth and maintenance of many of the firm's equity relationships.

Prior to joining CREG, Matt spent seven (7) years as a Senior Director in the industrial practice group at Cushman & Wakefield where he was annually recognized as a top industrial broker in the Mid Atlantic region. Matt has represented many of the nation's top institutional owners including Liberty Property Trust, Prologis, Prudential Real Estate Investors, Exeter Property Group and USAA Real Estate Company.

Matt has been involved in several of largest industrial transactions in the region including the representation of Kohls Department Stores in the acquisition of their east coast fulfillment center (1.0 million SF), representation of Liberty Property Trust in a 945,000 SF BTS with Clorox, representation of USAA in the 571,000 SF lease to XPO Logistics as well as the acquisition and redevelopment of the former Sun Products/Unilever facility at the Port of Baltimore (1.0 million SF).

Matt is a graduate of Northeastern University in Boston where he received his BS in Economics. He is a licensed salesperson in the State of Maryland and an active member of National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP) and the current President of the MD/DC/NOVA Chapter of Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR).

1344 Ashton Road, Suite 105 * Hanover, MD 21076

410-787-8799 * 410-787-8722 (fax)

www.cregllc.com